

Students, Alumni, Faculty, Staff, and Administration:

Dyer Statements wants your poems, stories, essays, photographs, and graphic designs for the next online issue. Dyer Statements is Dyersburg State Community College's journal of writing and graphics, and we want to make you a published author.

Rules:

- You must be a current faculty member, staff, student, or alumnus of DSCC in order to submit a work to the journal.
- All writing must be submitted as a Word document. Photos and graphics should be submitted as jpg files with a 300 dpi resolution. File naming protocol – lastname.firstname.imagetitle. Example – smith.joe.beautifulimage.jpg
- Submissions should not exceed 10 double-spaced, typed pages.
- Although you should limit submissions to one story, essay, or short play per issue, you may submit several poems for consideration.
- A covering email should include your name, your email address, title of submission, type of submission (poem, short story, etc).
- Subsequent pages of the submission should carry the title of the work.
- The editors, Brenda Fincher, Linda Weeks, and William Northcutt will make final decisions on which submissions will be published in Dyer Statements.
- Deadline for submissions is February 15, 2009

Send all submissions to Dr. William Northcutt: northcutt@dsc.edu
