Please indicate the correct appeal form for your circumstance.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form

- Low GPA
- Failure to complete any credits in one term
- Failure to complete 67% of classes attempted

Maximum Hour Appeal Form

- Exceeded the number of hours allowed for an associate degree or certificate
- Have already earned a degree
- Mathematically impossible to earn degree without reaching the maximum hours

- A financial aid appeal will not correct a student's academic standing. Likewise, readmission through the Admissions Committee will not automatically reinstate a student's financial aid.
- An appeal lacking extenuating circumstances or adequate documentation will not be reviewed. Students will be notified if their appeal information was insufficient.
- Students should anticipate a minimum of three weeks for the Appeal Committee to review and make a decision. Failure to provide required supporting documentation will delay the appeal process.
- Students are notified of the appeal decision by email, via their MyDSCC account.
- Students' Degree Works will be reviewed to determine hours needed for degree.
- Financial aid suspension does not affect a student's right to enroll at Dyersburg State Community College as a paying student. Students who have filed an appeal are responsible for paying their own fees to secure their classes.
