2. Parent's Marital Status

Please complete the following section based on your parent's current marital status. "Parent" means your legal (biological and/or adoptive) parent(s) and your stepparent, if applicable. In addition, the guidelines below will outline which parent's information is needed.

- If your parents are living and legally married to each other, answer the questions about both of them.
- If your parents are living together and are not married, answer the questions about both of them.
- If your parent is widowed or was never married, answer the questions about that parent.
- If your parents are divorced or separated and don't live together, answer the questions about the parent who provided more financial support during the past 12 months or during the most recent year that you actually received support from a parent.
- If your parents are divorced but live together, you'll indicate their marital status as "Unmarried and are living together" and you'll answer the questions about both of them.
- If your parents are separated but live together, you'll indicate their marital status as "Married or Remarried," and you'll answer the questions about both of them.
- If you have a stepparent who is married to the legal parent whose information you're reporting, you must provide information about the stepparent as well.
